TOO HASTY GETTING LICENSE.

Young Man Did Not Consult Girl.
Who Then Refused Him.

Wichita, Kan., Aug. 1.—A too hasty report prevented the marriage of Miss Blossom M. Glass, a stenographer, who came to Wichita from Labette County, Kans., some few months ago, and J. M.

Walls, of Cherrydale, a young merchant.
The pair had been acquainted since youth and there is said to have been more than a feeling of friendship between them. Just to surprise Miss Glass Mr. Walls came to Wichita the other day, secured a marriage license and prepared to spring it on his intended, get her consent to marry and hurry the matter along so that their acquaintances would be surprised.

But a reporter got the record of the license and it was in the evening paper before Mr. Walls had a chance to speak to Miss Glass. Those who know Miss Glass began calling her up and offering congratulations.

When Mr. Walls arrived with the license she refused to be married. She helps support her mother and she stated that she did not want to be tied down to matrimony anyhow. Walls has returned to Cherrydale.

Charlie Chaplin today, Virginia, 608 Pa.

Purely Personal

Driver James Sullivan, of No. 6 Engine Company, went to Baltimore by sea last week, returning by rail Saturday. He was accompanied by Gus Dillon, of the water department.

A. J. Driscoll, president of the Mid-City Citizens' Association, recently returned from a trip through the Southwest, touching upon a few border cities of Mexico.

R. O. James, of 212 Eleventh street southeast, accompanied by his family, is in Norfolk, Va., for the early part of August. His son, R. O. James, Jr., a patent attorney, who is with him will leave the latter part of the week for San Francisco.

Lewis Edwin Hoffman, of the General Land Office, and his young bride, are spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schull, Winchester, Va.

Miss Jennie Smith, railroad evangelist who has been ill at her home, 219 E street northeast is much improved, according to reports of physicians.

Ringgold Hart, private secretary to the Inspector Robert H. Boardman of the Police Department, is being mentioned as probable successor to Boardman. Hart is a graduate in law and is familiar with the duties of the office of Inspector and assistant superintendent of police.

OBITUARY.Dr. William A. Croft.

A brief private service for Dr. William A. Croft, author, journalist, and traveler, who died Saturday, will be held this morning at his residence, 102 B street northeast. The body will be placed in a vault at Oak Hill Cemetery, and burial probably will be tomorrow. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bessie Nichols Croft. Dr. Croft was in his 67th year.

He was born at Redding, Conn., in January 1853. When a young man he entered newspaper work, and in the course of his journalistic career, served as editor of a local paper. When the civil war started he left the newspaper business and enlisted in the Union army. In recent years he traveled extensively in Europe, Mexico, Cuba, and South America. His news letters from various parts of the world are of high literary value.

Henry L. Gordon.

Funeral services for Henry L. Gordon, who died Saturday night at Garfield Hospital, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from his residence, 1729 Sixth street northwest. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery, under auspices of Pentecostal Lodge, No. 23, P. A. M., the Masonic burial ritual to be used. Mr. Gordon was 20 years old, and is survived by his wife, Edna.

Charles Branger.

Heart failure caused the death of Charles Branger, 70 years old, a retired poultry dealer of 2119 First street northwest, as he was returning home early yesterday morning. He was stricken suddenly in V street between First and North Capitol street.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

For the District of Columbia, and Maryland: Partly cloudy, not quite so warm Monday and Tuesday; gentle easterly winds. For Virginia: Partly cloudy, not quite so warm Monday and Tuesday; probably local thunders-towers Monday; moderate easterly winds.

It is probable that during the next two days temperatures will not be quite so high over the middle and south Atlantic States, and they will be somewhat lower over the central portions of the country and continue low over the northern portions east of the Mississippi River.
The weather will be generally unsettled, with quite general thundershowers Monday and also Tuesday in the South, where showers are more more low, with a disturbance over Central Florida.
Local temperature—Monday, 81; 2 p. m., 77; 4 p. m., 74; 6 a. m., 76; 8 a. m., 82; 10 a. m., 82; noon, 86; 2 p. m., 91; 4 p. m., 91; 6 p. m., 77; 8 p. m., 75; 10 p. m., 74; High, 91; Low, 74.
Relative humidity—4 a. m., 74; 8 p. m., 80.
Rainfall (8 p. m. to 8 p. m.), 0.05; hours of sunshine, 4.5; per cent of possible sunshine, 60.
Temperature same date last year—Highest, 81; lowest, 60.
